THE WRAP

The Wrap [right] attaches to the USB-end of an iPhone charger, transforming it into a cable-winder for the charging cord. It works with recent US/Canadian pre-iPhone 5 chargers and USB cables. The Wrap may work with other countries', but only if the geometry is the same as shown here.

hiku

hiku simplifies shopping by remembering what you need – and it can shop for you. It scans barcodes and recognises voices, so you can just scan barcodes or list items out loud to create a shopping list on your phone.

DELL

The Dell XPS 12 Convertible is two chic devices in one: an ultrabook laptop that easily converts into a touch-powered tablet with Windows 8.

From $1499, dell.com.au or selected JB Hi-Fi stores across Australia

XERO

Xero is a leading cloud accounting software company that connects small businesses to their advisors and other services. Financial data is displayed on a dashboard so subscribers get a clear understanding of their accounting – invoicing, billing, salaries and banking – anytime, anywhere, on any device.

Plans start from $29 per month, xero.com/signup
